

In the framework of the current Covid-19 (Corona) crisis CtC wants to set up creative and solidarity project to develop and support citizen-, and creative participation in society. This with the aim to confront the current shortage of Medical materials in the Health Sector. The Target audience are aid workers and institutions, but also citizens, whether they reside legally or illegally, and citizen initiatives.

CtC has developed patterns which are compliant with prevailing guidelines by the National Health Services and institutions and providers active in health care. CtC is in close contact and has a direct link with the Belgian Think Tank on Corona.

CtC grants a temporary CC BY-NC-SY license to allow third parties to produce the by CtC developed patterns. CtC is convinced that only open access to these Works allows our society to confront the global health challenges inflicted by Covid-19.

What does the temporary CC BY-NC-SY license entails?
